LETTER TELLS OF CRIME

Has Lieutenant Read Where to Find Wife's Body.

THEN FOLLOWS HER IN DEATH

His Instructions Reveal Woman's Corpse, Slain With Ax-Man Crazed With Jealousy.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., July 26.-In a state bordering on insanity, said to have been brought on by drink and the fact that his wife had refused to live with here from his home in Westport early this morning. After producing a letter in which he had written of having murdered his wife, he shot himself in the head, causing instant death. Following directions given in the letter. Lieut. Thomas W. Comstock and other officers went to Westport, about seven miles from here. At a spot indicated, about half a mile from her home, they found the body of Mrs. Fanning, who apparently had been killed with a hatchet.

Son of a Manufacturer. Fanning is said to have been the son of Denis Fanning, a manufacturer of Providence, R. I. He and his wife, with their one-year-old daughter, lived at the home of his father-in-law, Capt. George Hall, in Westport. Fanning arrived at the police station here about 2 o'clock this morning in his automobile. He was in such a condition that it was with difficulty he could make himself understood. He produced a letter from his pocket.

After making several futile attempts to read it himself, he handed it to Lieut. Comstock, the man in charge. It was a neatly written missive and addressed, "To Whom It May Concern."

'My wife's body lies on the west side south of the bushes. Please give it your immediate attention and remove same as soon as possible. At my request, please bury us both together.'

times to "My baby," and one line said: clined the honor. "I would like to have my baby join me, but cruel as I am, I have not the heart but cru After the lieutenant read the letter, he

"What do you want me to do about "Just this," was the reply. Fanning, with quick motion, produced a big revolver, placed the muzzle to his mouth and fired. He fell dead instantly. Mrs. Fanning had told her husband last night that she would no longer live with him. The couple went for a walk to confer on the matter and Mrs. Fanning did

GROCERY STORES SOLD.

Sanitary Company's Twenty-Four Branches Under the Hammer.

Large transactions in the grocery business were consummated today by Adam A. Weschier, auctioneer. At a receiver's sale of the twenty-four retail grocery stores heretofore conducted by the Sanitary Grocery Company, a large crowd of business men was present, and the bidding started off at $1,000. The business was after spirited bidding sold to John R. Thompson for $12,250. The twentyfour stores are located in the northwest, southwest, northeast and southeast sections. The sale included all of the business, good will, trade furniture, fixtures and stock in hand on the day of sale. There was also a large attendance at the receiver's sale in bankruptcy of the "The Semmes-Kelley Company," located Brilliant Golf Saturday. at 12 E street southeast. The first bid received by Mr. Weschler for the business, including stock in trade, fixtures, horses, wagons, etc., was $5,000. John R. Thompson was also the successful bider for the Semmes-Kelley business, his bid being $9,000.

RECTOR OF GRACE CHURCH NEW YORK, DIES AT NAHANT.

Family Around Him at the End. Funeral Ceremonies on Wednesday in Boston.

Special Dispatch to The Star.

NAHANT, Mass., July 26.-The Rev. Dr. William Reed Huntington, rector of Grace Church, New York, died here at three minutes after 3 o'clock this morning. Dr. Huntington was conscious almost to the end, which had been expected hourly after the arrival of his daughter Margaret Friday last, who had hurried from Europe to reach her father's bedside. His amazing vitality surprised both the members of his family and Dr. Frederick Winslow, the family physician.

The funeral, it is expected, will take place Wednesday from the Emmanue! Church, Boston, of which Dr. Huntington was formerly assistant rector, when his father, Bishop Huntington, was in charge. Interment will be in Mount Auburn cemetery. The vestry, choir and burn cemetery. New York city, staff of Grace Church, New York city, him, Robert M. Fanning, aged twenty-eight years, came to the police station here from his home in Westport early church chimes from 8:30 to 9 o'clock.

His Family All Present.

Death came to the famous pastor at the summer home of his son-in-law, Royal Robbins, where he had been ill for many weeks. Present at the time were all of the members of Dr. Huntington's family, his three daughters, Miss Margaret ord to dispose of all odd lots and broken lines of women's garments at once. Huntington, who arrived here Friday from an intercepted European tour in time to & see her father before he breathed his last; Mrs. Royal Robbins, Mrs W. G. Townsend, and his son, Francis C. Huntington of New York.

For the past two days Dr. Huntington had been failing gradually and his strength slowly declining. Late last night a rapid change for the worse set in. Dr. Huntington came to the summer home of his son-in-law here in April, suffering from what was believed to be a nervous breakdown. It later developed that he had gastro-intestinal trouble. On June 24 his condition became serious. From that time he grew steadily weaker.

Class Poet at Harvard.

William Reed Huntington was born in 1837 at Lowell, Mass. At his graduation from Harvard in 1859 he was class poet. His studies for the ministry were under | the direction of an uncle, the Rev. Dr. of Lyon's brook, about fifty feet to the Frederick D, Huntington, who later was Episcopal bishop of central New York. In 1862 Dr. Huntington was appointed curate at Emmanuel Church, but after a few months became rector of All Saints Church, Worcester, where he continued for twenty-one years. WOOD TURNS IN BEST CARD AT HOME CLUB.

Qualifying Round of Western . Golf Association Amateur Championship.

CHICAGO, July 26.-Warren K. Wood of Homewood and Ned Sawyer of Wheaton inaugurated the thirty-six-hole qualifying round of the Western Golf Association's amateur championship tournament at the Homewood Country Club today. The leaders were sent away at 9 o'clock by Tom Bendelow, who is conducting the tournament, and were followed closely by St. Clair Eastman of Homewood and W, Gilliam of St. Louis. The remaining pairs of the 126 starters were sent away at five-minute intervals.

Brilliant Golf Saturday. If the brilliant golf displayed by the Exmoor and Midlothian quintets in the competition for the Marshall Field cup 3 Saturday is any criterion, the lucky ones who qualify in the first thirty-two will be forced to play very close to bogey for the thirty-six holes. It is freely predicted in the officials' tent that any one who goes over 168 will have a mighty hard time getting into the charmed circle of the fortunate thirty-two qualifiers. Charles Evans, jr., turned in a card of 153 for the 36 holes Saturday, and Mason thian also negotiated the 36 holes in 153. Charles Hyde, the one-armed player of the Wichita Country Club, attracted considerable interest as he started off with G. Higgins of Cincinnati. His good work brought out a hearty round of applause from the gallery gathered about the first
